

Korean Air Cargo flies non-stop to Europe

Korean Air Cargo brings Asia and Europe closer from March 30th, 2003.

Beginning March 30th in 2003, Korean Air Cargo begins to operate non-stop freighter services on the shortest route connecting Northeast Asia and Europe. It will save three hours for Seoul origin flights and two and a half hours for Seoul arrival flights vs. on the current routes.